

COAL REGIONS

Canvassed by Czoigosz as an Advocate.

Special to the Leader.

Vicksburg, Miss., Sept. 18.—H. J. Trigg was arrested here the other day by the police on the general charge of disorderly conduct. By his own statement, however, Trigg is an anarchist of pronounced type. Two citizens, a broker and a lawyer, were discussing the arrest of Emma Goldman, who was seated in a restaurant. Trigg, who sat near them, at once championed the cause of Miss Goldman, characterizing her arrest as "an outrage on American liberty." He was arrested by the police on information laid by Captain Charles J. Searies, whose life, it is claimed, he had threatened. When approached by the officers he said he was an anarchist, but did not believe in violence, and took exception to his arrest, claiming the right to express himself freely. He states that he is in favor of "government by revolution." He has a nervous manner. He claims to have charge of the circulation department of two Southern newspapers.

ANARCHIST

Arrested and Place Behind the Bars.

Special to the Leader.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 18.—It was learned here today that Leon Czoigosz made a tour of the Anthracite coal regions about six years ago. He was employed for a while by the Lackawanna Coal Company at Durbin, this county, and while there he said to have organized a lodge of anarchists. He could speak several languages, and soon became popular with the foreign element. He was known then as Fred Nieman. People who came in contact with Czoigosz then say that it was after notoriety all the time, and whenever the anarchists met he insisted on doing all the talking. His theory was that the condition of the working people in this country would never be improved until the doctrines advocated by the anarchists were put in practice.

Al. H. Wilson, the golden-voiced singer and his strong supporting company, in the beautiful comedy drama "The Watch on the Rhine," were greeted by an immense audience at the Auditorium last evening, and to say that the clever actor and singer pleased his house is indeed putting it mildly. Mr. Wilson possesses the rare talent of being an actor as well as an excellent singer. "The Watch on the Rhine" is one of those plays which appeals to those who enjoy an entertainment in which there is nothing but that of a high moral character, and with the excellent supporting company of Mr. Wilson the play is certainly up to the highest standard which could possibly be attained.

HUNDREDS

Of Strikers Will Continue the Strike.

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—The meeting today of striking tin workers from the Star and Monongahela plants at which five hundred were present, decided to repudiate the New York settlement and continue the strike indefinitely.

Muncie reports that the men in the Midland Steel Works received a telegram from President Shaffer today telling them that the scale was signed. Four hundred men returned to work. A special from Elwood says the bar mills and twenty-six hot mills of the American Tin Plate Company in that city were put in operation and are running full force.

The North Anderson plant of the American Tin Plate Company at Anderson, also began operation this morning.
